along with
John Noguez,
Special Assistant &
Candidate for L.A.
County Tax Assessor.

John Noguez joined the County Assessor's Department 25 years ago as a student worker, rising through the ranks to become an Appraiser Specialist for major properties from office buildings and malls to hotels, apartments and homes. He is currently a Special Assistant to retiring County Assessor Rick Auerbach.

John's experience includes a broad range of assessment duties and a remarkable understanding about how to value property and use the latest technology to do it efficiently and fairly.

He has also established excellent working relationships as the Assessor's liaison with realty boards, community and homeowner groups. He supports Proposition 13 as the primary protection of tax stability for all residential and commercial property owners.

John Noguez is committed to cost-effective management, accuracy and public service. John Noguez is known for recognizing and meeting constituent needs.
